

The Consulate General of Hungary in Toronto and
the Law Society at Ryerson University

cordially invite you to a lecture by

Prof. Gábor Hamza

„The Development of Constitutional Law: a Hungarian Example”

Date: November 26th, 2015 at 6pm-8pm

Location : Sears Atrium, third floor of the George Vari Engineering and Computing Center at Ryerson University, 245 Church Street

A discussion of constitutional law with guest speaker Professor Gábor Hamza examining the intersection of history, politics, and current events in the formation of the Hungarian legal system.

Professor Gábor Hamza is a distinguished Professor of Civil (Roman) Law at the ELTE University of Budapest. He is also the President of the Civil Law and Comparative Law Section of the Academy of European Law, a listed arbitrator of the Budapest Chamber of Commerce Arbitration Center, and editor-in-chief as well as member of the editorial councils of several legal periodicals.

Professor Hamza has an extensive research and publication list: he has written 20 books, and written or contributed to 1213 volumes, articles and review articles on Roman law, legal history, comparative law, EU law, legal philosophy and constitutional law. Today he gives lectures in 7 languages in various countries across 5 continents

RSVP REQUIRED: Please send RSVPs to lsru@ryerson.ca with subject line “Nov 26”

L·S·R·U